ITINERARY

We do our best to follow the published itinerary, but may deviate due to conditions beyond our control.

Embark on a journey to Santa Fe, where history, art, and nature converge!

In Santa Fe, New Mexico, adobe architecture and vibrant plazas paint a rich cultural canvas. Amidst spicy aromas and Native American crafts, exploring the museums and the mountainous landscapes – including visits to Bandelier National Park and Taos Pueblo – is captivating. Interacting with indigenous people enriches the experience, creating cherished memories of this enchanting journey into the heart of Southwestern charm.

Day One – Sunday – June 9th – Travel to Santa Fe, New Mexico

Arrive in Santa Fe to begin your adventure. You will be greeted at the airport and transported to your home-away-from-home for the next five nights, Old Santa Fe Inn. Once everyone arrives we'll celebrate our adventure with a no-host meet and greet on the hotel patio! Since we are arriving at various times, dinner will be on your own. There are several dining options within walking distance.

Day Two - Monday - June 10th - Bandelier National Monument, Valles Caldera, Ohkay Owingeh Pueblo

Today, we'll explore Bandelier National Monument- the park offers a unique blend of natural beauty and archaeological wonders with a rich cultural history. After a picnic lunch, we'll visit the Valles Caldera, remnants of a volcanic explosion over a million years ago. The day concludes with a cooking class and welcome dinner hosted by Norma, a native Puebloan from Ohkay Owingeh pueblo.

Day Three – Tuesday – June 11th – Santa Fe

Today, explore Santa Fe with a morning walking tour covering history, culture, and art. Afterward, enjoy free time for self-guided exploration. Lunch and dinner are at your discretion, with plenty of restaurant suggestions. The hotel's proximity allows for a quick siesta before further exploration.

Day Four – Wednesday – June 12th – Abiquiu, Ghost Ranch, Santa Fe

A half-day of exploring is ahead: more of the southwest and getting up-close and personal with more gorgeous New Mexico scenery! We'll visit the town that Georgia O'Keeffe called home in the fall & winter – Abiquiu. Then on to famed Ghost Ranch – one of O'Keeffe's famous muses. It's a gourmet picnic for lunch, then back to Santa Fe to relax at the hotel or head into town. Dinner will be on your own, with dining options nearby.

Day Five – Thursday – June 13th – Taos, Chimayo

We'll head to Taos, but first a trip to Chimayo, exploring historic churches with healing dirt (that's what the locals say)! In Taos, enjoy a walking tour, visit the UNESCO World Heritage site, Taos Pueblo, and have free time for lunch and exploration. Conclude the day with a special Farewell Dinner at Rancho de Chimayo, a historic 19th-century hacienda known for award-winning food, celebrating our adventure together.

Day Six – Friday – June 14th – Depart from Santa Fe

We'll enjoy one last breakfast, then depart for our return to our "regular" lives and say farewell to beautiful Santa Fe and our special time together.
